We are assembling a diverse group of hugely talented and acclaimed Artists, Ceramicists, Sculptors and Photographers. An impressive list of established creatives have all donated their work to be sold on the day of the event. Through the generosity of the creative communities, we have formed Art Aid Ukraine. We offer you the opportunity to acquire a unique work of art and at the same time, support the supply of urgently needed medicine directly into hospitals in Ukraine.

The event will take place on 24th April 22 in one of London's truly iconic venues, The Boiler House in Brick Lane. Built in 1840 as part of the legendary Trumans brewery complex it remains true to its industrial past with its dynamic scale and landmark chimney.

This event will mark the launch of a 10 day timed auction and also feature a live auction with donations from Bran Symondson, Dangerous Minds Artists, The Connor Brothers, Tacita Dean, Jean Jullien, Roelof Uys, Liz Fritsch, Nicole Farhi, Jason Wason, Michel Francois, Juliya Dan, Barry Martin, Matt Small, Peter Fluck, Robyn Ward, Danny Passarella, Victoria Topping, Dan Mitchell, Bridget Leaman, Geoff MacCormack, Tim Platt and Soulla Petrou, to name just a few...

There will be special guest performances from Ukrainian supergroup Vopli Vidoplyasova live from Kyiv, the wonderful Bloom Twins live from LA and acapella act La Vivo who will perform for us on the night.

Join us to eat, drink and indulge yourselves creativity. Our live auction scheduled for 19:30 with esteemed auctioneer Hugh Edmeades. We welcome you from 15:00 with a full program to follow. All proceeds from all sales on the day will go to established charities Relief Aid, Ukrainian Charity and our own initiative, Medicine for Ukraine. The idea is simple - through the generosity of our creative partners and those that support them, we will reach a long arm out and gather medical supplies from the warehouses of the EU and place them on hospital shelves in Ukraine.

Thank you for your support!
